Columbus, Feb. 10.—Asserting that he believes in the platform adopted by the Democratic party at Baltimore last year, endorsing the administration of President Wilson, promising to support the president if he is nominated and elected, and endorsing the entire legislative programme, "placed upon the statute books with the aid of Governor Cox, Charles L. Swain, of Hamilton county, speaker of the lower house of the general assembly, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for United States senator at the Democratic primaries next August.

"My motto is 'Progress and Prosperity' and the work that I have helped to accomplish in the state will be an example of what you may expect of me should I be elected United States Senator," says Mr. Swain's formal statement.

"The support of all forward-looking and Progressive Democrats is sought," the statement continues and "too frequently United States Senators have been rich men, but a new era with new aims, new ideals and new responsibilities has come to us all, and if I be nominated, it will be because the Democrats of the state think it is not necessary to be a rich man to have an opportunity to hold a high office, nor is it presumption for such a man to seek to serve his people in the United States Senate, and thus fulfill his greatest ambition."

"I ask all forward-looking and progressive Democrats who believe as I do and who are willing to give me the opportunity to serve them as their senator, to support me for the nomination by voting for me at the primaries, and to ask their friends to do likewise."

RAINE GUILTY AND READY FOR HIS PUNISHMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 10.—C. Hunter Raine, president of the Mercantile Bank here, arrested yesterday on the charge of embezzlement after the discovery of alleged defalcations of more than $1,000,000 to-day prepared to become accustomed to the routine of jail-life.

Attachments of the jail said the prisoner slept well last night and friends of the accused man have sent supplies to his cell to enable him to live as comfortably as possible. Raine has refused all offers of his friends to arrange bail for him, saying he is guilty and ready to accept his punishment. He also has refused to retain legal counsel.

While first announcements placed the amount of Raine's shortage at about $500,000 figures given out to-day show that this already has been increased to nearly $1,100,000. It is stated by bank officials that the defalcation may reach close to $1,500,000.

Definite figures will not be known until the state bank examiners working under J. L. Hutton, superintendent of banks, have completed their work.

Since pleading guilty to the charge of embezzlement yesterday and going to jail, Raine had steadfastly declined to discuss the affairs of the bank further than to insist that he alone is responsible for the conditions which wrecked the institution which was under state jurisdiction.

One of the touching incidents in connection with Raine occurred late yesterday when a reconciliation was effected between Raine and his brother Gilbert D. Raine, publisher of the Memphis News-Seminar. The two had been estranged for a number of years but when the bank president was placed in a cell yesterday one of the first to call upon him was his brother, Gilbert. Both wept as they agreed to forget past differences.

Columbus, Feb. 10.—An interurban car conductor is not justified in assaulting a passenger even if the passenger calls him a "rummy," the Supreme court held today when it ruled the Detroit, Monroe and Toledo short line railway must pay $1,500 to Frank Mills of Detroit, for injuries to his face and feelings, inflicted by the conductor May 3, 1912.

Mills had helped his crippled mother and sister to board a car and when they were seated, he returned to the platform, where the conductor was and is said to have declared that the conductor was "no gentleman," for not assisting the crippled woman. Then the conductor, Harrison Filing, struck Mills, causing the blood to flow from his nose. Mills entered suit in the Lucas county courts, declaring both his nose and his pride had been sorely hurt.

The Lucas county common pleas court gave him a $1,500 verdict, the court of appeals reversed this, but the Supreme court today upheld the lower court.

For injuries received nearly nine years ago when she fell in a coal hole in the sidewalk at 625 Cutler street, Cincinnati, Miss Emma G. Holzback was granted a damage verdict of $3,750 against Henry Ausdenmoore, through affirmation of verdicts given in lower courts of Hamilton county. In the first trial, February 2, 1910, the jury in the common pleas court disagreed on the amount of damages for injuries sustained March 13, 1911, when he fell down an elevator shaft at the plant of the competing scale company and fractured his hip.

The contributory negligence principle was upheld by the Supreme court today when it affirmed the judgment of the Circuit court and reversed the common pleas court of Montgomery county, thereby deciding that Frank Jussard of Dayton, is not entitled to damages for injuries sustained March 13, 1911, when he fell down an elevator shaft at the plant of the competing scale company and fractured his hip.

The city of Toledo lost in the suit of George J. Weiser, a teamster, who broke his leg when he was thrown from a wagon whose seat was fastened by defective bolts three years ago. The city must pay Weiser $750.

S. N. Ford, receiver of the Mansfield Railway company, will have to pay $4,500 for the death September 7, 1910 of Peter Kiner, a teamster, whose wagon was struck by a car at Main and First streets. Sarah Kiner, his administratrix, sued for $10,000, and the Supreme court affirmed the decision of the two lower courts.

London, Feb. 10.—Two subjects referred to the recent conference on safety of life at sea and to home rule for Ireland—stood out in bold relief in King George's speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament today. The address for the most part was a colorless recital of events already recorded which had developed since the closing of the previous session.

Referring to the conference on safety of life at sea, his majesty said:

"It gives me great gratification that the international conference on safety of life at sea, which recently met in London at the invitation of my government has resulted in the signature of an important convention which will, I trust, do much for the protection of life, especially on ocean going passenger steamers. A bill to enable me to fulfill the obligations of the convention will be laid before the house."

In regard to home rule for Ireland which, for the moment, is the subject of paramount national and imperial importance, the King said:

"I regret that the efforts which have been made to arrive at a solution by agreement of the problems connected with the government of Ireland have so far not succeeded. In a matter in which the hopes and fears of so many of my subjects are keenly concerned and which unless handled now with foresight and judgment and in a spirit of mutual concession threatens grave future difficulties, it is my most earnest wish that the good will and co-operation of men of all parties be taken into custody."

The debate in the house was a dramatic one. A fierce attack was Clip out your coupon neatly, and fill them out clearly and plainly, remembering that in the event of a tie for any prize between two or more contestants, neatest and clear writing will win the judges' favor. The picture is to be a part of the coupon. Do not detach the coupon from the picture.

Send no answers whatever to the Advocate until the contest is ended by the publication of Picture No. 70. Any answers received before that time will be destroyed and will not be counted. Read the rules carefully.

Rules of the Booklovers' Contest.

Any person may compete in this contest who lives either in Licking, Delaware, Knox, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Fairfield or Franklin counties, Ohio, except employes of the Newark Advocate or members of their families.

Answers to the picture must be written upon the coupon blank which will be printed every day with each picture during the seventy publication days the contest will last. Both picture and blank must be clipped from the paper, and the blank properly filled in with the name of the book and the author's name, together with the name and address of the contestant written clearly and plainly in the space provided. Not more than one person's name may be written on any coupon.

Each picture will represent the title of only one book, but there may be some pictures that suggest the titles of several books. For the benefit of contestants, and to allow for this variety of solution, any contestant may give as many as five answers to any picture, at will; but not more than one solution may be written on any coupon. If the contestant gives two answers as likely to include the correct one, two coupons must be used; if three answers, three coupons, and so on.

In each instance, whether the contestant gives one answer or five answers to any picture, both the picture and coupon must be used for each of the answers; and not more than five answers to any picture will be permitted.

If any one of the five answers that may be given to any picture is correct, the contestant will be credited for that correct solution and will not have the incorrect ones counted against his or her chances.

Prizes will be awarded to every contestant, by the Contest Judges, who sends in the largest number of correct answers upon the smallest number of coupons. Thus, if a contestant gives the correct answers to 70 of the pictures and uses only 70 coupons, that contestant will rate higher in the prize awards than one who uses 140 coupons or any higher number up to 350 for supplying the 70 correct answers.

If two or more persons, supplying the same number of correct answers, have used the same number of coupons for their answers, the highest rating will be given to the one whose answers are most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judges.

No contestant will be allowed to submit more than one set of answers, which must include not less than 70 or more than 350 coupons, with accompanying pictures.

Positively no solution may be sent in to the Contest Editor until every one of the seventy pictures has been printed. Answers in complete sets, as just specified above, will then be received in this office, and should be addressed to "Contest Editor" Booklovers' Contest, Advocate, Newark, Ohio. The awards will be made strictly according to the correctness of each set of answers, and the correctness shall be determined by the Finding List, the catalogue issued by us as governing the Booklovers' Contest. This catalogue can be obtained from the Advocate office for 25¢ (27 cents if by mail), and will include in its 5000 titles every one used in the contest. Awards will be announced in this newspaper after the close of the contest.

It is not absolutely necessary to send in solutions on blanks clipped from the Advocate, as duplicate pictures may be drawn by the contestants, if he or she so desires, or duplicate blanks may be obtained at the office of the Newark (Ohio) Advocate.

B. & O. VETERANS ARE ORGANIZING

Employees In Company's Service 20 Years or Longer Are Eligible.

Employees who have been twenty years or more in the service of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the other lines now embraced in the system are organizing a "Veteran Employees' Association, with social and fraternal features.

Membership in the association is open to railroad men in all departments of the service—officials, trainmen, clerks, telegraphers, mechanics, trackmen and laborers—who are joining under the bond of fellowship in promoting the railroad spirit. The plan under which the Veteran's association is being organized provides for a branch on each division. The number of Baltimore and Ohio men eligible to membership runs into the thousands and hundreds of others who will qualify during the next few years have signified their intention to join when permitted to by the years of service regulation.

Branches of the Veterans' association have been established in Philadelphia, with 369 members, and in Baltimore with 279 members. Other branches will be organized in the near future at Brunswick, Md., with 180 members; Cumberland, Md., 100; Newark, O., 100; Pittsburgh, 400; Grafton, W. Va., 100; Wheeling, W. Va., 75; Chicago Junction, O., 125, and Garrett, Ind., 60.

After these branches have been organized, the association will be extended to the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Staten Island lines.

The seniority rule will apply to the credit of members of the association, so that employees who have been in railroad service for twenty years and upwards, but whose period of service began before the line became affiliated with the Baltimore and Ohio, will enjoy the same privileges as those whose service has been entirely with the parent company.

Each branch organization will have elective officers, including a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, with an executive and sub-committee. Meetings will be held periodically, when social features will be enjoyed.

One of the objects of the Veterans' association is to lend assistance to the families of the members, should help be required in event of death. The education of deceased members' children will be provided for and such other assistance as comes within the province of the association will be rendered. Membership is entirely voluntary and the dues have been nominal.

An emblem of the Veteran Employees' association has been adopted, the design being the dome of the capitol at Washington, supported by the letter "V". A button and membership card will be issued and gold buttons will be furnished to the veterans who have served fifty years of service.

Readers' View Point

Editor Advocate: Your readers should feel grateful to you for bringing about the prizes offered in the Better-Health Contest and the publication of the three prize essays, or rather briefs. They are most excellent and very suggestive.

I here suggest that you appoint a committee to collate these briefs or suggestions, in order to eliminate any duplication of thought, and with whatever addendum that seem desirable, and have them printed in a small, cheap pamphlet form for general distribution. Surely there would be no difficulty to the Board of Health, or almost any other society, to finance the matter.

AN AD IN THE ADVOCATE CLASSIFIED COLUMNS WILL PAY

THE NEWARK DAILY ADVOCATE

We done to merit such persecution? Who have we injured? Who are they who are maligning and slandering us? What can they prove against us that would merit all this malignant vilification?

Would the government permit any other religious or social body of its citizens to be subjected to such persecution without taking a hand in its suppression? The history of the wrongs and outrages perpetrated in the past by the enemies of the Catholic church in this country shows that it was not their fault but their weakness that prevented them from a wholesale slaughter of our people. Let us not deceive ourselves by minimizing this new menace to the peace of our common country.

When we find Protestant Sunday school papers advertising the infamous books with such wretches as Crowley and thus drawing the attention of innocent youth to the most demoralizing literature ever printed, does it not show how far the demon of discord and lies has penetrated into the hearts of those who publish such advertisements?

And the strangest feature of all is, that this hellish campaign is carried on in the name of religion as if such could exist where there is no divine charity or human love. Why we have to undergo such a siege of calumny is certainly hard to understand, unless that in these times we are to be subjected in a special manner to a test of faith and suffering in the cause of our Divine Lord who was the Prince of Martyrs as well as of Peace. Strange, is it not, that while Catholics are doing all they can to make this republic all that its best citizens could wish to make it; while they are spending millions for the spread of sound education and proclaiming through their leading men in church and state their undying love and loyalty to its liberty and Constitution; while they are building and sustaining hundreds of charitable institutions for the poor of every creed and color, and while they are doing all in their power to bring about peace and good will among all classes of our citizens, nevertheless their endeavors and good works are all forgotten or buried in the oblivion of the insane hatred that has been sown and nurtured in the minds of the multitude who listen to and read the publications of these satanic disturbers of peace!

Now, when or how this persecution will end is the question we must put ourselves to answer. If the government will not protect us, what can we do? And if we have no recourse by law how shall we protect ourselves? Is it not possible to bring up in congress the whole question of our wrongs and have a thorough investigation of our case as well as of those who are persecuting us? And if this be thought of may we not expect that there are plenty of candid men in the Senate and House of Representatives who shall be ready and willing to see that justice shall be done the millions of their fellow citizens of the Catholic faith to whom they owe a duty as much as to any other denomination? While I am in favor of every society, lay and clerical, as well as every individual entering suit for libels uttered and published against them, I am still more anxious for a general movement on the part of the Church to have its fair fame and name vindicated before Congress and for ever put a stop to charges of disloyalty as well as the various other crimes that are being hurled at her Hierarchy, her religious communities and her benevolent societies in general. Does any one doubt that other religious bodies would insist on some such course if they were subjected to suchodium as Catholics are? Would for example, the Knights of Pythias remain silent if they were charged with the infamous oath attributed to the K. of C.? Would the King's Daughters go without defenders in Congress if they were maligned as our sistersheds are? Ah, a thousand blades would jump from their scabbards in every county of the land and vindicate their honor. Yes, and it would not be Protestant arms alone that would be ready to defend them but Catholic as well. But when our women are abused it seems to be quite different. Their fathers and brothers must keep quiet. They must remember that for them the freedom of the press has a far different meaning. They must not complain about license or lies when they are victims. Not they. If they were atheists or infidels or agnostics or anything else the press of the country would ring in denunciation and the halls of Congress with indignant speeches against their slanders. The courts too, would be busy and no fair-minded man would have any fault to find. I am writing merely my own opinions in which a vast number I am sure concur; but if the church in its wisdom prefers to remain silent and suffer patiently to the end we must submit to her better judgment and pray for the grace to do likewise.

The bitterest thing, however, which we have to bear is the thought that all prosecution comes chiefly from bodies who profess belief in the same God and Redeemer as we do; and while the love of God and our neighbor—in one word, charity is the essential virtue of this belief, still the very opposite of it is the vice which is its prime mover and most active agent. Such being the case it is evident that the Prince of Darkness is its author. But we must never forget that God is stronger than Satan and that God's church can never fail.

Respectfully,
O. C. Larson.

I feel quite sure that there are thousands so incited by those publications to hatred of our priests and sistersheds that it only requires an opportunity to be given them and they will burn down our churches, schools and convents as they did before and now all they can lay their hands on. We are told that free speech and freedom of the press must not be shackled. But does the law permit such freedom as involves foul and threatening to drown the land with the blood of loyal and patriotic citizens? And let me ask, what have the nos. 11, penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat, clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight, struggling for breath, with head stuffed nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucus dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. F. D. Hall, 19 North Side Square, Newark, O.

A TEN CENT BOX OF "CASCARETS"

Insures you for months against a Sick Headache, Billoousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Put aside—just once—the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passage way through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify those drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Billoousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

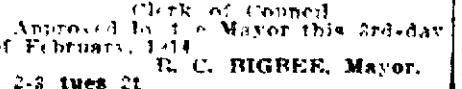

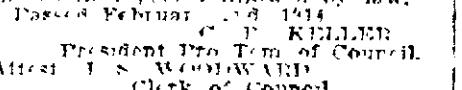

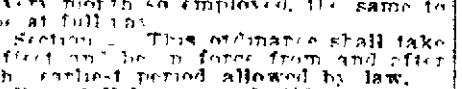

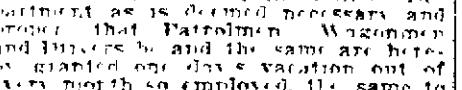

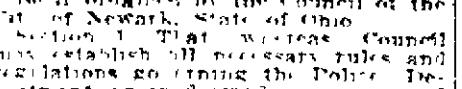

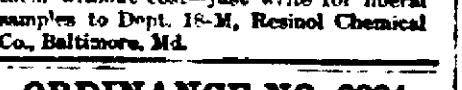

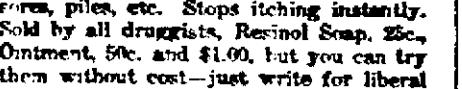

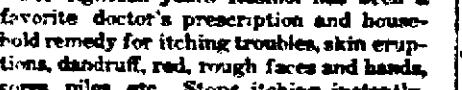

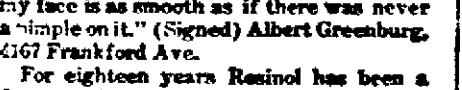

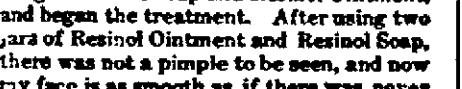

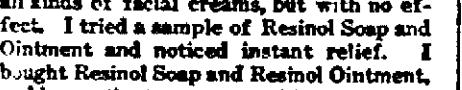

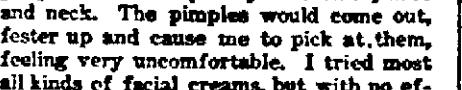

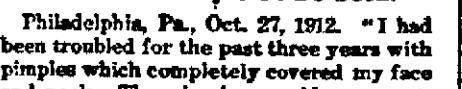

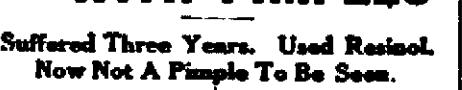

Feel Miserable? Out of sorts, depressed, pain in the back—Electric Bitters renews your health and strength. A guaranteed Liver and Kidney remedy. Money back if not satisfied. It completely cured Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, who suffered from virulent liver trouble for eight months. After four doctors gave him up, he took Electric Bitters and is now a well man. AND HE DID

Watch Carefully the Child's Diet

Start Them Off Right With a Good
Laxative and Then Watch
Their Food.

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constitute the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pep- sin, which, in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers, is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, piles, headaches, sleeplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pep- sin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, among them Mrs. M. E. Patten, Valley Junction, Iowa, who is never without it in the house.

Mrs. Patten says that Syrup Pep- sin has done wonders for her boy Ralph, who was constipated from birth but is now doing fine. Naturally she is enthusiastic about it and wants other mothers to use it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pep- sin is sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it contains proportionately more.

Everyone likes Syrup Pep- sin as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-griping and free from injurious ingredients.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys— Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Griffith is one of the greatest light-weights in the ring. He is the only man who ever knocked out Phil Brock, a trick which Champion Willie Ritchie, Matty Baldwin, Owen Moran, Harlem Tommy Murphy, Freddie Welsh and scores of others failed to turn. During the last year he has decisively whipped such boys as Joe Mandot, Young Shugrue, Ray Temple, and scores of others. From here Griffith goes to New Orleans to meet Joe Mandot in a return bout, while he has offers from two different fight clubs in Milwaukee to meet Ad. Wolgast and Jim Rivers.

Jones is one of the greatest and busiest little battlers in the ring. In two previous battles here which he won easily he was handicapped by being compelled to make weight. In this bout he will not be so handicapped and he promises to make matters even more interesting for Griffith than he did a year ago when the two met in what was universally conceded to have been the greatest bout ever seen here.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

He Had the Idea Anyway.

FINE PROGRAM WAS GIVEN BY TRAVELERS CLUB

Granville, Feb. 10. An interesting meeting of the Travelers club was held in the parlors of the Baptist church Monday afternoon. The first number on the program was a "Parliamentary drill," which was led by Mrs. Van Kirk, who gave an interesting lecture on the different methods of introducing motions and also differentiated between the use of the majority and two thirds vote. She brought concrete illustrations into her lecture which aided materially in making her subject plain to her audience.

The second number on the program was a paper written on the subject of "The Patent Medicine Crusade," by Mrs. William Howe. The dangers of using medicines for headache and cough ailments which were put up by patent medicine concerns and as a rule contained an injurious drug was very strongly attacked in the paper, in addition to this it was suggested that the various clubs and societies should take up the matter and attempt to improve the existing conditions or do away with the evil entirely if that were necessary.

The general routine of the program was put aside at this time as Miss Simpson an opera singer of some note was present at the meeting and agreed to sing. She has a beautiful soprano voice and sang "Sing Me to Sleep," and "Darky Lullaby" in a very pleasing manner.

The program for the afternoon was concluded by Miss Bess Ewart. She chose as her topic, "Moving Pictures," which is a subject of great interest at the present time. Both sides of the question were adequately handled. "Is the picture show here to stay, and is it an advantage in an educational way, or is it a disadvantage" was the gist of her arguments which were plausible.

Emotional Announcement

John Jay Lentz makes announcement of his candidacy for United States senator before the coming Democratic primaries of the state, and appears to be serious in his feelings. It should be remembered that Lentz was a candidate for senator in 1911, when Atlee Pomerance was elected, and in a characteristic manifesto published a flaring hand-bill announcement of the same in very large type, on the first page of the Columbus News, a few days before the legislative caucus at that time.

A contract for 45,000 tons of iron pipe has been awarded in Italy to a Philadelphia firm, which won against Italian, French, English and German competitors. Recently a Republican leader of the stand-pat type, tried to frighten the country by exploiting in Congress his party's panic howl about American money going to foreign countries which ought to be spent in employing American labor. But here's a million dollars in good Italian money coming to pay Americans for making a commodity for export. And it is only a sample of the trend of business that is favoring America under this enlightened condition of improvement in the country's industries under Democratic rule.

Here is a piece of soup-house news that the Republican stand-patters may find useful for buncome. The diamond industry of the Netherlands and in Belgium is in a serious situation, there being over 5,000 diamond workers out of work in Amsterdam, while the situation is said to be as bad or worse in Antwerp. Dutch papers lay the trouble primarily to the financial depression through which we have been passing in America.

Times must be hard, indeed, when one has to economize in his purchase of diamonds. Will there never be an end to this Democratic iniquity?

Our parcel post has proved such a success that Canada is to follow suit and inaugurate a similar system on February 10. An 11-pound package will be carried 200 miles for 22 cents; with other rates in proportion. Next in order will be an international arrangement by which the border line will be obliterated and parcel post territory will extend from the Arctic Circle to the Rio Grande.

If Huerta is sincere, the situation in Mexico has been greatly misrepresented; if not sincere, he is making a very good bluff. But a bluff like pride, often cometh before the fall.

DEADLY DIRTY TOWELS.

"Never wipe your face on a towel that someone else has used." This is one of the many messages of warning that the Ohio Commission for the Blind is sending throughout the state in its efforts to save sight. You never can tell what poisonous germs may have been left on the towel by previous users. There are men and women in Ohio today who have injured eyes because they used a dirty towel to wipe their faces. Take care of your eyes, they are your bread winners.

Candidates.

The candidates are coming forth, a fierce and noisy crew, and East and West, and South and North, they sound the loud bazaar; they sound the loud bazaar, my friends, the same familiar notes, and ere the weary campaign ends they'll have our divers goats. They're weeping for the men who slave, with sweat upon their brows; the starry flag again they wave, and vow the same old vows: they vow the same old vows, my boys, we heard in days of youth; they so beguile us with their noise, we think they speak the truth. And so we'll all neglect our work, and waste the golden days, to hear the ten cent modern Burke, goldbrick the easy jays; goldbrick the easy jays, my lads, and fill us full of bunk, when we should work to earn the seads, likewise the bone and plunk. They teach us that our fate depends on going to the polis, and voting for our windy friends who spring long rignarolets, my dears, but never ply the saw; who never wield the spade or shears—they only wield the jaw. They'll fool us with the same old tricks, and lead us by the nose, and we shall look to politics for cures for all our woes; for cures for all our woes, my chums, which statesmanship can't help; and when the day of waking comes, just watch us whine and yelp!

THE WAY OUT

From Weakness to Power by Food Route.

Getting the right start for the day's work often means the difference between doing things in wholesome comfort, or dragging along half dead all day.

There's more in the use of proper food than many people ever dream of—more than the pity.

"Three years ago I began working in a general store," writes a man, "and between frequent deliveries and more frequent customers, I was kept on my feet from morning till night."

"Indigestion had troubled me for some time, and in fact my slight breakfast was taken more from habit than appetite. At first this insufficient diet was not noticed much, but at work it made me weak and hungry long before noon.

"Yet a breakfast of rolls, fried foods and coffee meant headache, nausea and kindred discomforts. Either way I was losing weight and strength, when one day a friend suggested that I try a Grape Nuts breakfast."

"So I began with some stewed fruit, Grape-Nuts and cream a soft boiled egg, toast, and a cup of Postum. By noon I was hungry but with a healthy, normal appetite. The weak, languid feeling was not there.

"My headed was clearer, nerves steadier than for months. Today my stomach is strong, my appetite normal, my bodily power splendid and head always clear."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., read "The Road to Wellville," in pks. "There's a reason."

How to Make the Best Cough Remedy at Home

A Family Supply at Small Cost, and Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of warm water and boil for 2 minutes. Put $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of \$2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold most instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, bronchial asthma, whooping cough and spasmodic croup.

This method of making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is now used in more homes than any other cough syrup.

This explains why it is often imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in galactol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Dearie: Yes, I believe men all recognize a "made" complexion. Throw away your powder and rouge and use a plain spumax lotion. Then will your skin just as smooth as it is real, real as well as beautiful. To prepare it dissolve four ounces of spumax (which you may get from your druggist) in one half pint with hazel or hazel water. This lotion cannot be detected when on and its regular application banishes lines, blotches, pimples, blackheads and sallowness. The spumax lotion is delightful for the spring months as it protects the skin from the winds.

Dearie: You can make your skin sparkling and clear in this simple home treatment: Dissolve an ounce of crystal soap (get at drug store) in a pint of water. One or two drops in each eye, then it will be strong and look bright. If the lids are still inflamed, soak a dab of absorbent cotton in the tonic and lay them on each eye.

Dearie: The sagginess of skin which you write about is disfiguring, and you will soon be rid of it if you will use this. But try this simple treatment and I am sure it will work wonders. Mix an ounce of almond oil (from the drug store) in one half pint cold water and add two teaspoonsful glycerine. This will not only assist the skin to contract, slough off and the healthiness is restored. Keeps your complexion clear and free from blemishes. Also removes blackheads.

Eugene: Your welcome suggestion means that your liver requires a toner, and I would suggest a plain kardene tonic. This will clean the blood and give tone and strength to the heart and kidneys, and when these organs are in health the heart will be free from the bilious attacks, the obtrusive headaches, and the pains in small of back and groin. To prepare this tonic I get one ounce kardene

NEW MODELS FOR SPRING FASHIONS RECEIVED TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 10.—Forty-five panic-stricken patients of the City Sanitarium for Tuberculosis were rescued today from a fire which destroyed the institution. The loss was $50,000.

The hospital was in Wauwatosa, a suburb. The fire broke out in the basement and by the time the patients had been awakened the flames were approaching their beds.

Friebato Court.

Mabel Grande appointed administrator, estate of Frank A. Grande, deceased; bond, $18,000.

Will of Catherine Horton, late of Newton township, admitted to probate. No appointment.

GLENFORD.

Mrs. Susan Kelly is still very sick at her home near here.

Luke Cooperrider of O. S. U. is spending a few days at his parents home.

J. F. Alford, principal of the High school visited his parents at Bremen last Saturday.

D. H. King was a visitor in Columbus last week.

Quite a number attended the open session literary and basketball game at the school hall Friday night. At that time the High school defeated the Granville High by a score of 68 to 6.

Mrs. Rosella Lyle and little daughter Dorothy visited at the home of her brother, Frank Smith, last Friday. Mrs. Lyle resides in Thornville.

The following were at New Lexington Saturday taking the teachers lesson. Misses Hazel Parks, Lola King, Mabel Swinehart, Marie King, Estta Smith, Chloie Leckrone, Messrs. Urban Foucht, Homer Cotterman, Glenn Leckrone, Clyde Smith and Ross Swinehart.

Here are a few of the rules: The first and lowest skirt will still be narrow, but it will be surrounded by deep flounces which will give an impression of looseness, and almost produce the effect of a small crinoline. There will be a high but very open collar, and the bodice will be cut loosely and easily, often in soft silk. Sleeves will be short for day wear. The evening dresses will have no sleeves.

The popularity of marked decolletage for day and evening wear will probably increase.

Taffetas and velours delaine will be the favorite materials for day dresses, but gold and silver brocade will be used in the evening dress.

The hat will be a tiny toque set well forward on the forehead, after the fashion of 20 to 30 years ago, with one side turned. It will be trimmed with flowers.

Orval Bodle and sister Ada were at Newark on Friday and Saturday.

While there Miss Ada took the teachers examination.

Last Monday night Superintendent and Mrs. Kagan entertained the teachers at their home. Games, contests and music speedily wasted away the time.

At 11:00 a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Alford, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Foucht, Misses Mabel Swinehart, Lola King, Hazel Parks, Estta Smith and Gertrude Kym, Messrs. Urban Foucht, Dana King, Glenn Leckrone, Luke Ridenour and Herbert Carnegie.

Lorraine Von Fahd hair is not especially dyed though it is in danger.

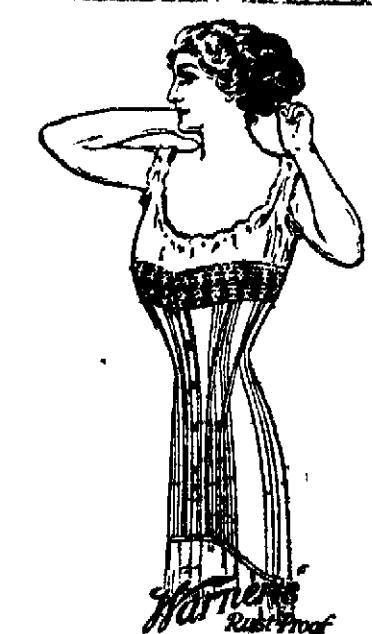

There is a horn made hair tonic cost little which is known to be of great value. Take one-half pint and fill it up with water. Then add one-half pint of glycerine. Get this from the druggist.

Then add one-half pint water. This gives you a full pint. I have found it very soothing and banishes the dryness and all the irritation of the scalp. It invigorates the hair roots and their growth is certain to result.

Sharper Than a Serpent's Tooth."

"Children are rather selfish, aren't they?" mused the Bachelor Girl.

"Some of them," replied the Bachelor. "It depends a lot upon how they have been trained."

"No matter how they have been trained," returned the Bachelor Girl, "when they grow to men's and women's estate, they should do some thinking for themselves. I know a woman, a widow, who strained every nerve in bringing up her daughter. This woman saved and pinched good—her mother had too much sense for that. But she wanted the girl to be well-equipped for making her way. The mother sent her to college, and denied herself and worked day and night, so that the girl could have a good start in life; I don't mean fashionably or socially good,—the mother had too much sense for that.

You wouldn't want your stenographer to transcribe your letters with a pen. It wouldn't pay you. Why, then, expect your bookkeeper to work with tools that are antiquated? The

Remington
Adding and Subtracting Typewriter

has opened the door of every accounting department to the writing machine. This machine, which writes and adds (or subtracts) in one operation, is the last word in typewriter efficiency.

You know how the typewriter saves time and labor in correspondence. In billing and statement work the Adding and Subtracting Typewriter does the same—and more. It stops errors, prevents errors; it gives you machine accuracy in place of brain fallibility.

The prevention of loss through errors alone makes this machine worth more than its cost to you. And the time and labor saving are clear gain.

Our illustrated booklet, "The New Remington Idea," sent on request, will tell you all about it.

Elks to Give 350 Minstrel Tickets to Salvation Army For Free Distribution

Newark Elks are going to play the part of Big Brothers next week on the nights of the Big minstrels, Thursday and Friday, and with this end in view have placed 350 gallery tickets in the hands of Captain Watkins of the Salvation Army and the good Captain with his able helpers, Mrs. Watkins and daughter, Cadet Mary Watkins will distribute the tickets to those who are unable to purchase them and let them enjoy the good things in store at the forthcoming production. Two hundred tickets will be distributed for Thursday night and one hundred and fifty for Friday night. The gallery seats about six hundred so there will be ample room for all.

Captain Watkins and family, who are doing splendid work in Newark, are heartily in accord with the plan and are taking much interest in it. They will begin the distribution of the tickets Thursday of this week and will continue giving them out until the supply is exhausted. They will be given only to those who cannot afford to purchase tickets and it is a foregone conclusion that all who accept the Elks hospitality will be richly entertained.

They will see a magnificent first part setting, handsomely staged and gorgeously costumed. There will be twelve funny and men in drills, marches, dances and songs, all dressed in satin while the white-faced ballad singers and members of the chorus will wear colonial costumes which for grandeur have never been excelled on a local stage. The songs are up to date and some of the best talent obtainable will be heard on the minstrel nights.

The girls will also be a feature of the big show and will consist of two big acts that will certainly prove enjoyable. It is needless to say that everyone is waiting for the big event and that the house will be packed on both nights.

The Big Brother Elks have not always been appreciated. They act and do things. Their purse strings are always open and they are ever ready to assist when called upon. Their heroic work in the big floods of last year will ever remain a bright memory to the scores to whom they brought succor.

The cheery "Hello Bill," is known from coast to coast. An Elk is ever at home wherever he may meet a brother Elk. The Big Brother creed of the Elks is worthy of emulation.

To the fallen man, to him who is bitter, ridden, to him who sees no ray of light in life, who sees the gloom and darkness and hears only the clarion blare of the disgruntled and pessimist, there comes one flash of light through the "Big Brother" movement.

To be a big brother means everything to the brother himself and the one who is taken under the watchful care of his friend. It means to the brother the right to live in a house by the side of the road; to stop the wanderer who treads paths of wrong and roads of failure; to watch with kindly eye the mistakes of a friend; to tell him quietly, not complainingly, and whispering in his ear words of encouragement, face him round, helping him and pushing him forward to success in life.

Misery loves company. It does not love the company of those who look with frowns and scoffs and irony upon its mistakes. The "better than thou" feeling can bring nothing but deeper gloom, more bitter hatred, more fearful cynicism and a further step into the mire. But it does love sympathy and affection. It welcomes the extended hand of hope and belief. It likes friendship. It eagerly receives overtures of proffered aid sincerely tendered.

Jolly, hopeful, enthusiastic, warm-hearted, bright and cheery, the Elk can be a real brother to his friend. There is no easier way to reach a friend than to be a friend. A kindly word spoken now will save many

Theaters

"The House of Bondage."

Tonight at 7 and 8:30 will be the last time to see "The House of Bondage," presented by the Photo Drama Co. in six reels, at the Auditorium. There are over two hundred scenes in the production and over a hundred artists in the cast, headed by Lotta Pickford, who plays the part of Mary Denbigh, which critics have pronounced the greatest work she has ever done in motion pictures.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

One of the big scenes in Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which will hold forth at the Auditorium Friday matinee and night is the Swanee River by moonlight. By the aid of lately invented mechanical and electrical devices, actual scenes for miles along the stream, made famous in song and story, are unfolded to the eye in all their mid-summer beauty. The setting is said to be one of the most beautiful and realistic stage pictures ever produced.

"Mutt and Jeff."

Suppose things did go wrong at the office today, that's no reason why you should take the "kid's head off" every time they move. Remember, you were a "kid" once yourself and I'll venture to say you were twice as bad as yours are. Phone down to the Auditorium. Thursday morning and get seats for "Mutt and Jeff in Panama". Laugh the darning trouble over with the kids and you'll all be happy. Be young while you can, old age and the grouch will come soon enough. The date is Saturday matinee and night.

GAS SITUATION IS RELIEVED BY WARM WEATHER

A rise in temperature of nearly 30 degrees in less than 12 hours relieved the gas situation in Newark Monday. By 8 o'clock Monday evening the pressure which had been weak all day resumed normal proportions and continued to be strong throughout the night and on Tuesday.

With a temperature close to zero registered Monday morning and a threatened gas failure the weather man gave hope by predicting warmer weather. It came according to schedule.

Continued warmer weather is promised for Tuesday but snow and colder weather is doled out for Wednesday. If the weather man makes as good a guess on this position as he has in the past few days it wouldn't be a bad plan to polish up the sled runners and get ready for the blanket of white.

Many Newark people who had delayed making provisions for coal fires did so Monday and coal wagons were on the jump most of the day. There was a slight falling off in the coal business Tuesday when the cold spell was broken.
